The Wisconsin Arts Board is hitting the road again! We're looking forward to hearing about what is going on in your area AND for your input as we create the WAB's FY19-21 Strategic Plan. We want to know...

- Are you interested in discovering resources for your work that you never knew existed? Come! Some resources lie in plain sight – it's only a matter of seeing them. Funding sources, barter opportunities, shared office models... find out where they are and how they work.
- Do you want a stronger organization? Come! Hear and share best practices from and with your peers, as well as WAB staff.
- Are you making the Eau Claire region - and the entire state of Wisconsin - a better place? Come! Help shape the work of WAB's grants and technical assistance programs so we can help you with that.

RSVP by Wednesday, December 7 to artsboard@wisconsin.gov
